THE ORIENTAL WAR.

Abjct Surrender of the Chinese—Peace Arrangements.

A Tokio dispatch of Feb. 12 says: The Chinese peace envoys sailed from Nagasaki yesterday for home. Japan has repeated her declarations that she is willing to renew negotiations with envoys having full powers.

The London Standard's Tien Tsin correspondent says: "Li Hung Chang and Prince Fung or Sir Robert Hart will shortly be appointed High Commissioners and Envoys Plenipotentiary to arrange a treaty of peace with Japan. This step will be taken in accordance with the advice of the foreign Ministers in Peking."

A Tokio dispatch says a report has been received from Wei-Hai-Wei stating that Chinese Admiral Ting has proposed to surrender the Chinese forts, ships, etc., provided the lives of the crews and foreigners are guaranteed, and under these provisions a formal surrender is being arranged. The Japanese general reports the losses since January 29, as 83 killed, 219 wounded, and the Chinese 700 killed.

In confirmation of the report received to day from its correspondent in Tokio, the Central News says: "Admiral Ting, Commander in Chief of the Chinese fleet at Wei-Hai-Wei, has surrendered. Admiral Ito granted him the desired conditions and the surrender is now being effected. When the Chinese land they will be received with the honors of war."

The Times correspondent in Kobe sends this dispatch: The Chinese prisoners at Wei-Hai-Wei say that there are seven foreigners on the Island of Liu Kung Tao, five of them English, the sixth an American, who was arrested some time ago aboard the steamship Sydney, and the seventh a German. There are provisions though for five months. Coal is plentiful and ammunition is deficient.

The Times has this dispatch from Hong Kong: The Chinese at Foo Chow are preparing to resist the expected attacks. The officers of H. M. S. Spartan confirm the report that three Chinese warships at Wei-Hai-Wei were sunk and all the torpedo boats were captured or sunk. Eight of the latter sailed out to make an attack. The Japanese ran alongside the flagship and they all surrendered.

The Shanghai correspondent of the Times telegraphs that orders have been issued at Peking to mobilize the large force of Tsing Chow to relieve Wei-Hai-Wei.

The London Standard's correspondent in Peking says: When Peking shall be seriously threatened the Chinese Emperor will retire to Pagan in Mongolia. When Peking shall be captured Prince Kung will be authorized to conclude peace. Japan has altered her terms and declines to inform the powers yet of her views, but suggests that the foreign diplomats ascertain what China is willing to pay and what territory she will cede.

The Central News correspondent in Peking says that Li Hung Chang has been re-instated and appointed peace envoy to Japan.

The Central News correspondent in Shanghai says that after the surrender of the last forts and the Chinese fleet at Wei-Hai-Wei, Admiral Ting and the Chinese General committed suicide.

The Central News correspondent in Shanghai says that the Chinese peace envoys have arrived there from Nagasaki.

The Peking correspondent of the Times telegraphs: The Foreign Ministers had audiences with the Emperor to day, the occasion being New Year's day, and received other ceremonial concessions. The Ministers required that they should be admitted through the front gate of the palace.

The United States navy department has heard from Admiral Carpenter at Chefoo that the Charleston arrived there after having rescued fourteen missionaries, and that he had directed the Yorktown to go to the south coast of Shantung, China, to the assistance of missionaries in that locality. He also stated that the Chinese still held the island points and Wei-Hai-Wei.

A commission of experts has been ordered to Wei-Hai-Wei to examine the sunken Chinese warships and report whether it will be feasible or profitable to raise and repair them. It is believed that the warship Ting Yuen can be raised and refitted at moderate cost.

Shanghai dispatches say: The viceroy of Nankin has apologized to the English representatives for the attack made by the Chinese soldiers on Captain Cartwright on the British warship Pigeon.

The Times' correspondent in Chefoo says that negotiations for the surrender of Wei-Hai-Wei have been pending since the 12th. He confirms the report of Admiral Ting's suicide. The Chen Yuen, he says, is the only effective Chinese warship left.

The Shanghai correspondent of the Central News says that the Japanese have made great efforts to save the life of the American Harvie, arrested by the Chinese recently aboard the passenger steamer Sydney, hailing from Sydney, and held by them on the Liu Kang Tao in Wei-Hai-Wei harbor. It is not known whether they have succeeded.

The Emperor has restored to Li Hung Chang the yellow jacket, peacock feather and other honors. He will be sent to Peking, where he will be given an audience by the Emperor.

The Korean ministry has resigned.
